Program Overview

This comprehensive 40-hour training program provides a thorough understanding of the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). Participants will have access to detailed self-paced modules covering 30 major IFRSs, divided into four modules. Additionally, each module includes two interactive virtual classes where participants can engage in live Q&A sessions with the trainer. The self-paced lessons are available 24/7 over a three-month period, allowing participants to study at their own convenience. Throughout the program, participants can communicate with the trainer via the Learning Management System (LMS) for any clarifications or inquiries.

Objectives:

1. Develop a comprehensive understanding of the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).
2. Gain in-depth knowledge of the major IFRSs and their application in various financial scenarios.
3. Enhance proficiency in applying IFRS principles for accurate financial reporting and compliance.
4. Acquire practical skills in interpreting and implementing IFRS guidelines within organizational contexts.
5. Familiarize oneself with the latest updates and amendments to the IFRS framework.
6. Improve decision-making abilities by analyzing financial information in accordance with IFRS standards.
