IFRS S1 & S2 Essentials: Integrating Sustainability into Financial Reporting

Virtual Program

25th, 26th & 27th November 2025

9:30 AM - 1:00 PM (GMT+3)

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The IFRS Sustainability Reporting Standards Training Program prepares finance, accounting, and ESG professionals to implement IFRS S1 and S2 standards from the ISSB. It focuses on the need for transparent and comparable sustainability information in financial reporting. Participants will learn to identify, assess, and report sustainability-related risks and opportunities through foundational concepts, regulatory frameworks, practical tools, and case studies.

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAM

By the end of the training, participants will be able to:

- Grasp the purpose, structure, and requirements of IFRS S1 and S2
- Identify and assess financially relevant sustainability risks and opportunities
- Integrate ESG disclosures into general financial reporting
- Apply materiality concepts: double, impact, and financial
- Conduct climate scenario analysis using TCFD guidance
- Classify and calculate Scope 1, 2, and 3 GHG emissions
- Prepare disclosures on physical, transition, and climate-related opportunities
- Align ESG reporting with assurance, audit, and investor expectations
- Let me know if you need an even shorter version for a slide or one-pager.

METHODOLOGY

The program adopts a blended and interactive approach to ensure practical learning and engagement, including:

- Expert-led live sessions with real-world insights
- Case studies and industry examples to reinforce practical application
- Interactive group exercises and scenario-based discussions
- Templates and tools for disclosure and materiality assessment
- Knowledge checks and wrap-up quizzes to reinforce learning outcomes
